Dear Parents and Carers

I hope that you have all enjoyed the snow today and had fun outside with your children.

Clearly, the weather has disrupted lots of travel arrangements across the UK today but, as you know, the school will always try to stay open wherever possible. There is more snow forecasted to fall tonight but we hope that the gritters will do their job and make the roads safe enough for staff to travel to school so we can be open as usual.

We will make a final decision as to whether school will be open tomorrow by 7am in the morning. This will be posted on the school's website and a message sent via ParentPay.

With thanks for your support and understanding at this time.

Yours sincerely,

Rita Arundel
Headteacher
