Dear Parents/Carers

We're excited to let you know that the best-selling children's author Peter Bunzl is visiting the school on Monday 14th October. Peter will be talking to the children about his writing. His wildly imaginative stories are regularly used as class reading books, and the novel Cogheart is one of the EHPS 100 reads!

Peter will be signing copies of his books after school in the library. You must purchase books in advance as none will be available on the day. They are being offered at a special discounted price from South Kensington Books by clicking the link below.
